Welcome to Virtual APA!

Dear SCCAP members,

Welcome to virtual American Psychological Association Convention 2020! In the past few months, a lot has happened. We are witnessing what is hopefully a once in a lifetime pandemic. We have participated in and born witness to a tremendous civil rights movements in Black Lives Matter. Most of us have experienced dramatic changes to our work lives and had to adapt very quickly to telehealth, wearing masks, adding additional layers of protection in our offices, and/or remote teaching. In the midst of this, we are still having an annual convention that does not require us to leave the safety of our favorite couch, chair, or bed. Welcome to virtual APA 2020!

SCCAP will be presenting a shorter program this year. Our presenters have shortened their presentations dramatically so that we can watch them and stay attentive for their entire talks. As a result, our symposia are likely to be about 30-45 minutes and viewable at any time. Unfortunately, we are not able to offer continuing education for our programming due to the virtual format. We also have two virtual poster sessions. Please see the exciting details inside this program! Caitlin and I look forward to “seeing” you in the virtual discussions.

As always, Caitlin and I are incredibly grateful to the team of reviewers who volunteered their time to help us build this program. Laura Dixon, Marie Gillespie, Sohyun Han, Nicole Mahrer, Ilana Moss, Joseph Raiker, and John Young volunteered their valuable time to help us review the programming this year.

Our hope is that you will have many opportunities to engage, learn, network, and enjoy yourself! Be sure to follow us on Twitter: (@SCCAP53). We will be posting reminders of upcoming talks. If you use social media, be sure to tag us with #SCCAPatAPA #APA2021.

Stay safe, stay home, wear a mask, keep your distance, and stay well!

MISSION

The purpose of SCCAP is to encourage the development and advancement of clinical child and adolescent psychology through integration of its scientific and professional aspects. SCCAP promotes scientific inquiry, training, professional practice, and public policy in clinical child and adolescent psychology as a means of improving the welfare and mental health of children, youth, and families in the context of a diverse society. In the service of these goals, SCCAP promotes the general objectives of the American Psychological Association.

VISION

From its inception, the Society of Clinical Child and Adolescent Psychology (SCCAP), APA Division 53, has been committed to advancing the clinical knowledge base and services provided to children and their families.

SCCAP continues this important agenda through policy work as it relates to child and adolescent mental health, through shaping and building the scientific practice, and through conferences designed to bring cutting-edge clinical research to frontline practitioners.

SCCAP's creation, growth, and advancement continue to demonstrate a commitment to both science and practice. Through the membership's expertise, energy, and commitment, and the financial and journal resources, SCCAP is in a unique position to influence the research and clinical practice of child and adolescent psychology now and in the future.

SCCAP's educational and scientific conferences strengthen efforts to advance the knowledge and skills of practitioners and researchers.

Thanks to your membership, SCCAP is able to work toward improvements in children's mental health care services at local and national levels. It also offers advocacy in support of mental health careers and training. Because of SCCAP's continued growth, which is directly related to representation on APA's Council of Representatives, SCCAP's membership has a strong voice on APA task forces and committees, as well as participates in ongoing discussions on clinical child specialization and accreditation.

MEMBER BENEFITS

Join us! Together we can advance the cause of promoting healthy mental health for children and adolescents. Visit SCCAP53.org for complete membership information.

Member Discounts — Members receive discounted registration at Miami International Child and Adolescent Mental Health Conference and the National Conference in Clinical Child and Adolescent Psychology. Taylor and Francis also offers discounts on their publications to SCCAP members. SCCAP Webinar rates are reduced for members.

Grants and Awards — SCCAP invests in its members by offering many award and grant opportunities in research and practice.

Our Journals — Journal of Clinical Child and Adolescent Psychology is a leading child psychopathology and treatment journal and Evidence-Based Practice in Child and Adolescent Mental Health is an evidenced-based practice-oriented journal.

Forum Discussions — Join our network of thousands of psychologists and students through our online, members-only community! This exclusive forum allows for participating in scientific and professional discussions, organizing messages by topics, and reviewing past messages. It is a more permanent, organized, and interactive version of the SCCAP Listserv.

Our Newsletter — InBalance offers topical features, news of interest, and important policy related information.

Listservs — A members-only listserv provides opportunity for peer consultations, resource requests discussion forum for practice, scientific and professional topics, job openings and APA updates. Students may join the student only listserv.

Professional Consultations and Discussions — A members-only listserv provides opportunities for professional peer consultations and for scientific and professional topics. Students may also join a Student Only listserv.

Convention Activities — We sponsor activities at the APA Convention and regional conferences, including symposia, workshops, poster sessions, and social hour. Learn, exchange information, and stay abreast of current clinical and research topics.

Continuing Education and Professional Development — CE credits can be obtained at the APA annual convention and through the SCCAP webinar series. The online Career Center is a repository for members looking for internship and professional career openings. Members have access to thousands of journals, psychological and medical textbooks, government and open databases, prescreened peer-reviewed articles, and online databases.

Task Forces and Special Interest Groups — Help us by joining the efforts to advance the issues around children and adolescent mental health. Instructions for joining or starting a SIG are online.

Focus on Students — SCCAP invests in the future by supporting its student members. For easier access students receive free memberships and webinars, manage the Student Development Committee and serve on all SCCAP committees, and mentorship programs

Advocacy for Children's Mental Health — Perhaps most importantly, Division 53's strength and size offer a crucial opportunity for advocacy. Thanks to your membership, SCCAP is able to work towards the improvement of children's mental health care services at local and national levels and offer advocacy to support mental health careers and training.

LIFE-LONG LEARNING MADE EASY

SCCAP offers several vehicles for staying up to date on evidence-based practice and other issues relevant to child and adolescent mental health. Our webinar series focuses on topical issues and is enhanced by member forums that extend networking and educational opportunities after the webinar is over. SCCAP53.org contains links to keynote speeches and treatment training videos developed in partnership with the FIU Center for Children and Families. Personalized learning is also available by participating in SCCAP's Mentor programs.

CO-SPONSORED CE & CONFERENCE PROGRAMS

SCCAP takes an interdisciplinary approach to sponsoring CE programs as a way to more broadly advocate for children's mental health and to provide members with a variety of network of experiences. APA CE Program listings: SCCAP53.org
SCCAP co-sponsors MICAMH and other conferences that provide child and adolescent focused programming.

JCCAP Future Directions Forum

We launched the Future Directions Forum to help early career scientists build their scientific toolbox. The Forum, dedicates a full day to offering professional development workshops, as well as small group and one-on-one expert consultations on all aspects of academic work. We webcast many of these events online so that those who cannot attend in-person can have access to this content from wherever they are.

Student Mentorship Program

"Productive and successful careers typically reflect the important role of mentors and mentorship. Reflecting its significant value, the student mentorship program offers opportunities to build professional relationships that will likely facilitate your own development."

STEVE LEE, 2018 SCCAP PRESIDENT

"Colleagues are a wonderful thing – but mentors, that's where the real work gets done." — Junot Diaz

SCCAP's mentorship program aims to consistently develop future leaders in the field of psychology who will strive to uphold the values of scientific excellence and a commitment to the wellbeing of children and adolescents across a variety of research and clinical settings.

Our program's mission is to facilitate meaningful mentoring relationships among SCCAP professionals and students. We believe in the power of mentoring to foster personal and professional development, enhance connections to the clinical child and adolescent psychology community, mutually build professional networks and support systems and, subsequently, provide only the highest level of care to the people we serve.

WHO: Undergraduate students, graduate students, early career professionals (ECPs). The program welcomes both research- and clinically-focused participants.

WHAT: Undergraduates are paired with a graduate student mentor, graduate students are paired with an ECP mentor

HOW: Mentorship dyads are matched based on participants' interests and goals. After being matched, participants are encouraged to get to know their mentor/mentee through regular contact (e.g., email, phone calls, video chats).

FAQ

Will I be matched with a mentor/mentee in my city? No, you could be matched with a mentor/mentee located anywhere in the country!

How often will I talk to my mentor/mentee? It's up to you! We encourage dyads to discuss their mutual goals and collaboratively set expectations for contact.

What should we talk about? The mentorship program focuses on professional development. The most common topics of conversation are CV development, graduate school options, interviewing strategies, and internship/clinical experiences. Dyads will also receive periodic check-ins from the program coordinators that will include suggestions for topics to discuss.

Celebrating our 2020 Award Winners

Distinguished Career Recipient

SCCAP is proud to announce that Dr. Joan Asarnow, Professor of Psychiatry and Biobehavioral Sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine at the University of California, Los Angeles is our distinguished career award winner. Dr. Asarnow has worked diligently to develop and disseminate treatments for depression, nonsuicidal self-injury, and suicide prevention for children and adolescents in novel contexts such as primary care and emergency departments. Dr. Asarnow's work has improved the lives of countless children and adolescents. We are grateful that Dr. Asarnow has agreed to provide SCCAP with a webinar about her work and future directions at a later date.

2020 SCCAP Fellows

Fellow status requires that a person's work has had a national impact on the field beyond local, state, or regional levels. A high level of competence or steady and continuing contributions are not sufficient solely to warrant Fellow status. In order to demonstrate outstanding contributions or performance in clinical child and adolescent psychology, the applicant must be able to provide:

- Documentation of sustained contributions or performance in clinical child and adolescent psychology over a period of a minimum of ten (10) years
- Evidence of distinctive contributions to clinical child and adolescent psychology that are recognized by others as excellent
- Data exhibiting a documented impact beyond the immediate setting in which the candidate/nominee works
